Director's Corner

Nicole Rosser, MPA
Executive Director

We are so excited about an upcoming event! October 20th we will hold our first 'Miss Family Promise of Greater Houston County' Pageant.

This pageant will be for girls 11-14 years of age. We will be asking the contestants to share information with the community about Family Promise and the work accomplished through our program as we serve homeless families in Houston County. It will be both informative and fun as the girls learn more about the services we provide and obtain sponsorships to assist our guest families with their childcare needs.

Parents and Grandparents, see the flyer on page two about the informational meeting. It will be held this Saturday, September 14th.

This event coincides with National Family Promise Week, October 18th—25th. Join us to support these young ladies as we celebrate their involvement in the community and their encouragement to the children in our program, "Youth Supporting Youth"!

News from the National Family Promise Office

Family Promise has earned its 7th consecutive 4-star rating from Charity Navigator. The rating, which is Charity Navigator's highest designation, was awarded to FP because of the organization's strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency. "Family Promise is committed to operating at the highest levels of ethics, financial health, accountability, and transparency. We owe that to our supporters and funders and are proud to be honored by Charity Navigator" said Claas Ehlers, CEO of Family Promise.
